TOK exhibition examiner's comments

Mark awarded	3
Marks available	10

Example I

This is a weak exhibition but just manages to meet the basic rather than the rudimentary level descriptor. The student's objects are not wholly generic and there is some appreciation of the extent to which certainty is attainable in the discussions of objects 1 and 2. The discussion of object 3 is mainly ineffective except for some rather limited comments about scientific studies and faith.